Dear Mr. Wead,

I am overwhelmed to receive all the information you provided about your family. Your website is amazing and so interesting. I have been pouring over all of it. When I sent you the information, my method of research was a quick scan to find any easy to recognize pages that I could forward to you. After reading your history, it prompted me to pick up the book by Dr. Rainey and dive deeper. It sheds light that seems to point to your family beginning ties with the group who moved from Kentucky to Ohio in the late 1700s, establishing our church in 1804. If I am able to find passages easy to send to you, I will do so.

Have you ever used the Presbyterian Historical Society in Philadelphia for your research? They do have some records on line.

If we had a Register of Members prior to 1881, it would clear up in which building/branch of our church they attended. It could have been more than one location.

I am glad to have "met" you through email and furnish materials that might possibly give you clues to your family's story. As our History Committee continues to gather and preserve Sugar Creek's history, we will be watching for any Wead/Wade connections and share with you.

Blessings,

Jane Jolly
